Family Psychoeducation

www.samhsa.gov/samhsa_news/VolumeXI2/article4.htm

Through family psychoeducation, practitioners work in partnership with families and consumers to support recovery. Practitioners educate families about the illness and help them develop coping skills for related problems. “Family” refers to anyone committed to the care and support of someone with mental illness. It is designed for a single family or multifamily group format. Practitioners include social workers, psychiatric nurses, psychiatrists, psychologist, and case managers.

LEGAL

Casey Wethington Act for Substance Abuse Intervention (KRS 222.430 to 222.437)

An involuntary treatment act for those who suffer from the disease of addiction

Steps in the process (obtained from PAR website, Casey's Law link):

- Step One: Download a copy of the petition, www.peopleadvocatingrecovery.com, or obtain a copy from your local clerks office
- Step Two: This petition is filed with the circuit clerk (clerk issuing drivers'/operators' licenses) by a spouse, relative, friend, or guardian of the substance abuse impaired person.
- Step Three: The court reviews the allegations in the petition and examines the petitioner under oath.
- Step Four: The court determines whether there is probable cause to order treatment for the respondent (the person named in the petition).
- Step Five: If probable cause is established, the court orders the respondent to be evaluated and a hearing are set within fourteen (14) days.
- Step Six: The respondent is notified of the date and purpose of the hearing.
- Step Seven: The respondent is evaluated by two (2) qualified health professionals, at least one (1) of whom is a physician.
- Step Eight: If the court finds the respondent should undergo treatment, the court shall order treatment from sixty (60) days or up to three hundred sixty (360) days, dependent upon the request in the petition and the result of the hearing.
- Step Nine: The petitioner of Casey's Law is responsible for finding the treatment facility and how much to pay, if payment is needed at all. Some facilities are no cost.
